THE HOT TOPIC

Welcome to the beginning, the middle, and for some of us, the end- 2004! What can we say? This year we decided to find what the hype about Wilson was all about. The hot people, the great teachers, the cafeteria food, (okay...maybe not the food...) and a lot of other things you may not expect from here. You know, everyone has that one thing that makes them burn with passion; whether it be sports, music, or maybe even a significant other. Whatever it is that sparks your interest, turn the page and watch as our school's diverse passions ignite!

Prom 2003 was one of the best we have ever had at Woodrow Wilson High. Our prom was filled with dancing, and as always, a lil bit of freakiness. We had our prom at the Chesapeake Conference Center and it was beautifully decorated by the prom commitee. But as fun as it was, it was alsoa lil sad due to the fact that we were, in a way, saying goodbye to the seniors we had come to love. It truly was a Hidden Paradise.

In Loving Memory

Eric L. Wade Jr.

PORTSMOUTH - Eric Lowell Wade Jr., 17, of the 400 block of Mohican Drive, died Oct. 30, 2003, in a Norfolk Hospital. A native of Dayton, Ohio, he was a son of Eric Lowell Wade Sr. and Terressa Clark Wade. Eric was a senior at Wilson High School. He was a member of Green Lakes Baptist Church and its skateboarding youth group. He was a member of the SPAM Video Club, a former JROTC member and a talented skateboarder and video maker. Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Nicholas Wade and Michael Tonkin; maternal grandparents, Mary Carney and Steve Clark; maternal great-grandparents, Emily and Gus Jones, all of Portsmouth; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

A funeral will be held Monday at 3 p.m. in Pinecrest Baptist Church by Revs. Greg Kitts and Dwight Buchholz with burial in Olive Branch Cemetary. The family will receive friends at Sturtevant Funeral Home Sunday from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Eric was a blessing to all his family and friends. His bright smile and beautiful blue eyes brightened everyone's day. He was an adventurer and dare-devil at heart with many adventures left undone. His absense has broken many hearts, but his memory and love for others lives on in our hearts forever and ever.

Eric Lowell Wade Jr.

C/O 2004

December 6, 1985 - October 30, 2003

Eric Lowell Wade Jr., was only 17 at the time of his death, but lived a rich and commendable life. In his life, Eric affected hundreds of people with his energy and enthusiasm. Everyone who knew Eric was touched by his admirable smile and warm heart. Although initially shy and quiet, you could take one look into his bright blue eyes and see his playful spirit. The world was lucky to have been touched by Eric, and we were the luckiest of all.

Don't Add Up

Though words do not tend to add up to the pain and grief to that which is being felt, this is a mere attempt to help keep all of out heads highly held. No form of compensation or compromise can account for what has been lost and taken away, nor can it ease the hearts, minds, and state-of-mind of us whom have been affected.

No normal human being can provide any type of explanation to all the "Why?" questions that we all have. Therefore, I, as a human being, dare not try. It hurts us all to be able to do nothing to better the situation.

Yet, it hurts us even more to know that it has happened to someone dear to us all. However, despite knowing the true and reality of the outcome of recent events, it is nearly impossible for us to accept the outcome of these results.

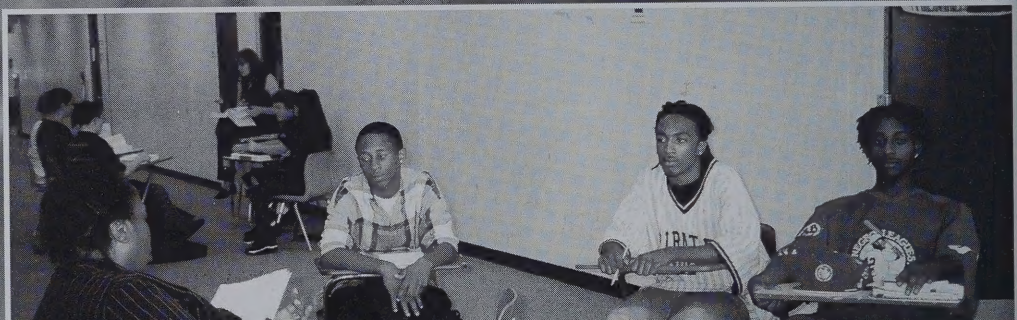
HURRICANE ISABEL COST THE SCHOOLS IN THE HAMPTON ROADS AREA MORE THAN $200 MILLION DOLLARS. THERE WERE DOWNED TREES, SHATTERED GLASS, TOPPLED SATELLITES, ROTTEN FOOD, AND BLOWN COMPUTERS. THE DEATH TOLL WAS 40.

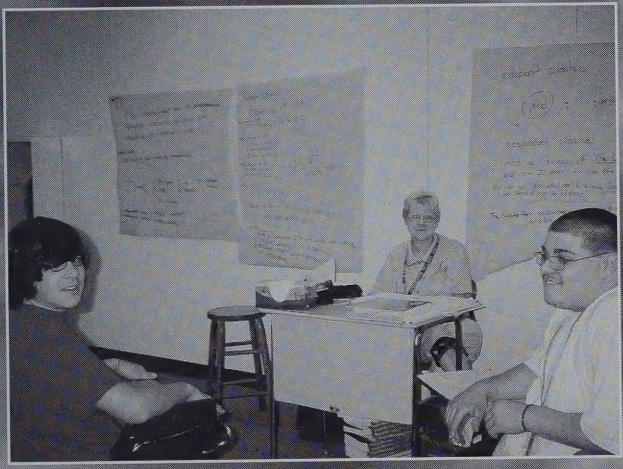


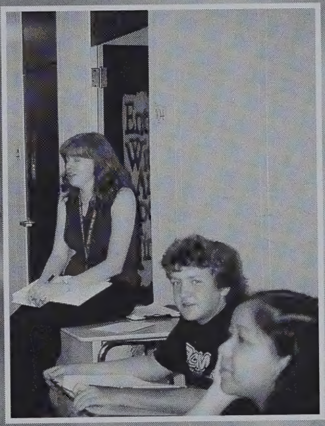
MOST FAMILES WERE WITHOUT POWER FOR A WEEK TO TWO WEEKS. SCHOOLS WERE CLOSED FOR A WEEK BEFEORE POWER COULD BE RETURNED TO THE SCHOOLS.

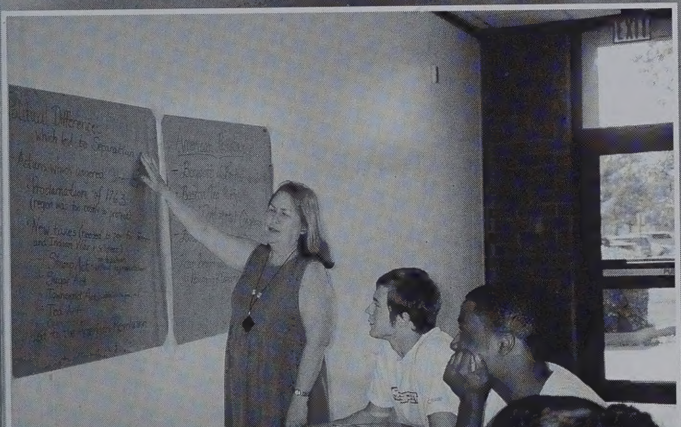
Q&A

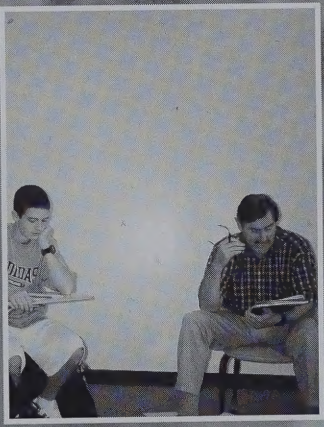
What was the highest wind gust we had when Isabel hit?

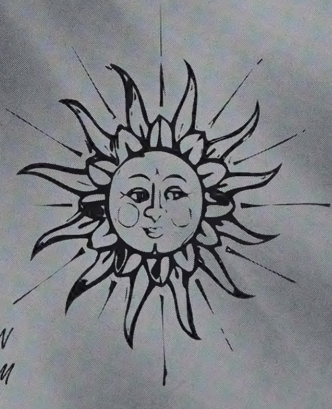
The highest wind gust was 90 MHP.











WILSON WAS A SHELTER FOR ISABEL AS WELL AS CHURCHLAND. WHEN THE SCHOOL WAS USED AS A SHELTER, THERE WERE 602 PEOPLE STAYING HERE. Ms.GARRIS HAD EACH OF THE FAMILIES PARTICIPATE IN A TALENT SHOW. THE TALENT RANGED FROM SINGING AND DANCING TO POETRY READING. WORKERS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY WERE BROUGHT TO OUR AREA TO HELP WITH THE MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR CLEAN-UP PROJECT. AT PRINTING, THE CLEAN-UP WAS STILL GOING ON.

SCHOOL WAS REOPENED ON THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25 FOR ONLY A HALF DAY. WITH ONLY A LIMITED AMOUNT OF POWER, CLASSES WERE HELD IN THE HALLWAY BECAUSE THERE WAS NO LIGHTS!
IT WAS QUITE A CHALLENGE AND AN ADVENTURE!

Season Overveiw

If there is one constant, it is there are no constants. Over time, everything changes and and nothing remains quite the same. Never is this more evident than in the 2003 football season. Jamel Deans was elected the "Offensive Player of the Year" in the Eastern District, 1st Team All Tidewater, 2nd Team All Regional, and 2nd Team All State and several other members of our team were named 1st Team as well as 2nd Team and Honorable Mention. 1st Team Running Back Jamel Deans, 1st Team Offensive Tackle and 2nd Team All Tidewater Samuel Daniels , 1st Team Offensive Center Alex Swanner, 1st Team Offensive Guard Sean Harrell, 2nd Team Defensive End Kenneth Scott, 2nd Team Defensive Back Lashawn Merritt, 2nd Team Kick/Punt Return Jamel Deans, 1st Team Defensive Tackle Samuel Daniels, and Honorable Mention Defensive Tackle Sean Harrell. In closing, Coach Roscoe Coles said the team would not be really happy until they were District Champions, Regional Champions, and bring home the State Title. Until then, we will work harder than our opponets to out perform them on the field and off. The best is yet to come!

2003 Varsity Baseball

Season Overview

The Varsity baseball Presidents began the season with high hopes, and were considered a contender in the Eastern district. The team was led by senior Jeremy Rayhorn who was named 1st-Team All-District. The Presidents began with a 4-0 record powered by strong performances by junior Chris Blake a 2nd-Team All-District selection.

As the season wore on the Presidents began to struggle due to several key players changes and injuries. Wilson continued to limp to a 7-12 overall record (6-8 district record)! The presidents final game with Booker T showed that several underclassman such as Nick Almond, Bubba Ashbury, and Chris Cicone, that Wilsons future is bright.

~Mrs. Holt~

Ashley,

Congratulations on your surviving 12 years at school. I am very proud of what you have accomplished. Even though your Mom is not here to share this with you, she would be very proud of what you have accomplished. Jo gave you all the tools needed to accomplish your goals. But in the end, it was your choice to graduate. You were the one that decided that you weren't going to mess up and not graduate, so you did with alot of hard work and perserverence. You honor both your mother and I. You are and have always been the sunlight in my life. I wish only the best and brightest possible future.

Thank you for being the best daughter a father could ask for.

Love,
Dad

It seems like just yesterday you started kindergarten. I am sure you can still remember being greeted by all of us when the bus brought you to Grandmas after school your first day of kindergarten. If you have forgotten, we still have the video. There have been so many firsts that we will never forget; your first dance recital, your first pageant, your first time cheering, your first formal dance. We have enjoyed being able to share all of these moments with you.

It doesn't seem like our little girl should be graduating from high school and moving on. We are all so very proud of you. We know you will be successful in any endeavor you choose. We will always be there for you.

We love you very much.

To Sara,
From the very first time I held you, I knew you were special. God sent us an angel with black hair and hazel eyes, who has brought us so much joy. We can't believe the years have passed by so quickly and you're now a senior. We are so proud of your accomplishments and dedication to your scholastic goals. As you continue to succeed in life, we'll be there every step of the way to support you. And most importantly, always remember how much your family loves you.

To Lindsey,
You first came into our lives as a friend of our daughter, but soon became part of our family. We've watched you grow up and mature into a responsible, talented young woman. Considering the circumstances you've had to live with, you've become a very dedicated and hard working student. We are so proud of you and want you to know how much you're loved, not only by your natural family, but by your adopted family as well.
